EXHIBITOR RULES AND REGULATIONS Companies participating in the 2015 Atlanta Association of Health Underwriters (AAHU) Benefits Forum at the Gwinnett Civic Center hereby agree to conform to the following rules and regulations:

SECURITY, LIABILITY AND INSURANCE The exhibitor assumes the entire responsibility and liability for losses and damages including those to exhibitor's displays, equipment and other property brought upon the premises of the Gwinnett Civic Center facilities and shall indemnify and hold harmless the Gwinnett Civic Center, AAHU, and their agents, employees and servants from any such losses, damages and claims. Small and easily portable articles should be properly secured at all times.

FIRE REGULATIONS In accordance with regulations of the Gwinnett Fire Department, explosives or combustible materials are not to be displayed. This includes gas, paint, propane, alcohol, turpentine, chemicals, etc. All materials used in the construction of exhibit booths must be non-flammable. No open flames are allowed. All aisles and exits must be kept clear, clean and free from obstructions to comply with fire regulations.

CANCELLATION Booth cancellation will be honored until 02/01/2015, with a refund. A 20% service charge will be deducted from the refund for each booth. Refunds on cancellation after 02/01/2015 will be made only if AAHU exhibit space is sold out and the canceled space can be resold. Any space not claimed or occupied, or for which special arrangements have not been made by 03/01/2015 will be forfeited without refund. These regulations are imposed to ensure the maximum success and safety of the AAHU Benefits Forum, not only for AAHU, but also for all exhibiting companies. Any exhibitor violating the regulations may be required to remove their exhibit immediately with no refund of exhibit fee.
